Any motion must be filed with the office which originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

Terrance M. O'Reilly, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a citizen of the United States who seeks to classify the beneficiary, a native and citizen of the Philippines, as the fiancée of a United States citizen pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(K).

The director denied the petition after determining that the petitioner had not established that he and the beneficiary personally met within two years prior to the date of filing the petition.

On appeal, the petitioner asserts that he was not able to meet with the beneficiary because of financial constraints. He submits his itinerary and states that he is going to visit the beneficiary on March 8, 2000.

Section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Act defines a nonimmigrant in this category as:

An alien who is the fiancée or fiancé of a citizen of the United States and who seeks to enter the United States solely to conclude a valid marriage with the petitioner within ninety days after admission, and the minor children of such fiancée or fiancé accompanying him or following to join him.

Section 214(d) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1184(d), states, in pertinent part, that a fiancé(e) petition:

shall be approved only after satisfactory evidence is submitted by the petitioner to establish that the parties have previously met in person within 2 years before the date of filing the petition, have a bona fide intention to marry, and are legally able and actually willing to conclude a valid marriage in the United States within a period of ninety days after the alien's arrival, except that the Attorney General in his discretion may waive the requirement that the parties have previously met in person....

8 C.F.R. 214.2(k)(2) provides that as a matter of discretion, the director may exempt the petitioner from the requirement that the parties have previously met only if it is established that compliance would result in extreme hardship to the petitioner or that compliance would violate strict and long-established customs of the beneficiary's foreign culture or social practice.

The petition was filed with the Service on October 13, 1999. Therefore, the petitioner and the beneficiary must have met in person between October 14, 1997 and October 13, 1999.

The petitioner claimed in a statement dated November 25, 1999, that he and the beneficiary have been writing to each other and exchanging pictures and hundreds of phone calls for over three years. He stated that the money could be put to better use here when they are together than wasted on a trip.

The petitioner has failed to establish that he and the beneficiary have met personally as required, pursuant to section 214(d) of the Act. Nor has the petitioner established that he warrants a discretionary waiver of the requirement pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 214.2(k)(2).

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden. Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner states on appeal that he is going to visit the beneficiary on March 8, 2000. This decision is without prejudice to the filing of a new petition (Form I-129F) once the petitioner and the beneficiary have met in person.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
